**Reward Money Continues to Rise** Chief Thanks the Community

It has been two weeks since the Manchester Police Department opened a missing person's case for 7 year old Harmony Montgomery, and in that time the citizens of Manchester and surrounding cities and towns have consistently showed their support and willingness to help.

Tips continue to come in through our dedicated tipline and numerous people have offered their monetary support. Today we received another $4000 dollars in pledges toward the reward for credible information that leads investigators to Harmony.

Manchester Police want to thank TJ Florence from TF Contracting of Hooksett for his $3000 offer and an anonymous donor from Boston who pledged $1000.

This brings the reward amount to $104,000, a number that is truly outstanding. "I would like to thank all the business men and women, as well as private donors who have promised to give," says Chief Allen Aldenberg. "I believe there is someone out there that has information about this little girl's disappearance and I hope this reward gives them the incentive to come forward."

Chief Aldenberg will make himself available today at 2 pm to speak about the reward money. This will take place at the Manchester Police Department, 405 Valley St, Manchester, NH.
